

Domestic Violence in New York City

A leading cause of family homelessness

At least

41% of families in NYC shelters are homeless due to domestic violence*

Children exposed to family violence experience trauma and face many challenges

- Poorer academic performance
- Poorer physical and mental health outcomes
- Emotional and behavioral problems

45% to 70% will also become victims of physical abuse or will themselves become abusers

Safe, affordable housing with access to support services ends the cycle of violence and helps rebuild lives

Fosters family unity and health

Helps children to succeed

Fosters financial stability

Provides a platform for future success

new destiny housing

12 w 37 st, 7th floor
new york, ny 10018
646.472.0262

* Office of New York City Comptroller, Report: Housing Survivors: How New York City Can Increase Housing Stability for Survivors of Domestic Violence, 10/21/2019.